

Virtual Ambassador

John Muir Land Trust (JMLT) protects and cares for open space, ranches, farms, parkland and shoreline in the East Bay. JMLT offers our Virtual Ambassadors the opportunity to share JMLT's mission with the public virtually and remotely.

Volunteer Opportunity Overview: Virtual Ambassadors are an inclusive group of JMLT supporters who are passionate about sharing JMLT's work with others. As a Virtual Ambassador, you promote JMLT to your online communities by promoting current campaigns and activities that JMLT is involved in.

Responsibilities and Duties:

- Re-share JMLT's online information and posts through platforms such as Facebook and Instagram.
- Encourage people to support JMLT's mission, online campaigns, visit properties and attend events.
- Coordinate with JMLT staff to get involved at virtual community events.
- Stay up to date with JMLT's current land campaigns through JMLT literature.

Qualifications:

- Friendly and enjoy communicating with the public.
- Great communicator, team player, and able to accept and give clear direction.
- 18 years of age.
- Access to internet and email.
- Must complete an interview.
- Familiar with JMLT and have previous experience as a JMLT volunteer.

Extra Information

Staff Contact: Community Programs Manager, Hannah Hodgson, hannah@jmlt.org (925)387-8738

Location: Virtual, remote.

Compensation: This role is purely voluntary.